HUNDREDS FALL

The Loss of the American Forces May Be Heavy—Thought That Five Hundred Are Wounded.

ONE HUNDRED MAY HAVE BEEN KILLED.

The Gallant Conduct of General Wheeler—He Was Carried to the Front on a Litter—Could Not Be Held Back.

HEAVY LOSSES IN YESTERDAY'S BATTLE.

Scripta-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 2.—It is thought the loss in yesterday's battle will probably be one hundred killed, and five or six hundred wounded. The shells from the Spanish fleet are believed to have done very heavy execution.

Scripta-McRae Service.
NEW YORK, July 2.—Sylvester Seavall, the war correspondent of the New York World, reports:
One hundred wounded American soldiers were carried past him up to 2 o'clock yesterday.

Scripta-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 2.—Unofficial advices give the following losses: Battery A, Second Artillery, killed: Privates Underwood and Helm. Wounded: Sergeants Zosky, Vette and Cornford and Corporal Keen.

Scripta-McRae Service.
GUANTANAMO, July 2.—The following wounded are reported from yesterday's battle: Corporal McLean, Private Barr, Rough Rider Mason Mitchell, Sergeant Devore, Trooper Freeman, and Corporal Armstrong, of the Third cavalry.
Fifteen Cubans in the valley before El Poso were wounded by the Spanish shells.

sundown. We have carried their outworks, and are now in possession of them. There is now about three-quarters of a mile of open between my lines and the city.

"By morning troops will be entrenched and a considerable augmentation of forces will be there. Gen. Lawton's division and Gen. Bates' brigade, which have been engaged all day in carrying El Caney, which was accomplished at 4 p. m., will be in line and in front of Santiago during the night.

"I regret to say that our casualties will be above 400. Of these not many killed."

SHAFER.

NO LATE REPORT FROM SHAFER.

Scripta-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 2.—Nothing had been received at 1 o'clock p. m. from Gen. Shafter about the resumption of the fight today.
Gen. Alger says the fight was resumed this morning, but has no advices of the progress made.

The state department has received a dispatch from Port Said saying that the Spanish ships Colon and Cavadoaga entered the Suez canal yesterday. The rest, except one, are being repaired and have left the harbor, coaling from transports.

SPANISH COWARDS.

Gen. Kent's Headquarters, Near Aguadores, June 30.—The Spaniards in the front of general Kent's line have adopted a new method of preventing him from firing on their works.

They have strung, at frequent intervals, Red Cross flags, the line being directly in view of their entrenchments. The object of this, it is thought at Gen. Kent's headquarters, is to prevent the Americans from firing in that direction, or, if the Red Cross is ignored, to spread the idea that the American soldiers are violating the rules of civilized warfare in firing upon hospitals.

GENERAL PANDO REACHES SANTIAGO WITH 6,000 MEN.

Scripta-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 2.—The opinion of the department here is that the occupation of San Juan Heights by the American troops opens the way for the taking of Morro Castle and down to final capture.
The temperature at Santiago this morning is one hundred and six degrees.

Scripta-McRae Service.
NEAR SANTIAGO, July 2.—The American troops after a furious fight all day yesterday all along the front, completely routed the Spaniards and drove them into Santiago.
The victory of our troops was complete.
The American loss is estimated at four hundred, most of whom are wounded only.
Morro Castle was completely ruined by the shells of the American fleet.
The fight will be renewed this morning.

SANTIAGO WILL FALL TODAY OR SUNDAY.

Scripta-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 2, 9 a. m.—Dispatches from the front make it almost certain that our troops will enter Santiago tonight or Sunday.
It is stated that Commodore Watson's squadron will not be sent to Spain until after the fall of Santiago. It will probably be ten days before it will be ready to sail.
10 a. m.—The war department has just received a dispatch from Gen. Shafter in which he says he fears he has underestimated our loss in yesterday's battle.
He says he must have a fully equipped hospital ship immediately. Also he must have additional medical officers and supplies. Also he asks for a launch.

GENERAL PANDO REACHES SANTIAGO.

Scripta-McRae Service.
PLAYA DEL ESTE, July 2.—General Pando with five thousand Spanish troops reached Santiago Thursday.

Scripta-McRae Service.
NEW YORK, July 2.—Sylvester Seavall reports that General Pando with six thousand troops has entered Santiago. He dispersed eight hundred Cubans who tried to check him.

Scripta-McRae Service.
GUANTANAMO, July 2.—A courier reports that El Caney has been captured, and Aguadores has fallen, and Santiago's fall is only a question of a few hours.
General Shafter moved on Santiago this morning, and the battle is raging today along the whole front.

GALLANT JOE WHEELER.

Scripta-McRae Service.
GUANTANAMO, July 2.—General Wheeler, who was ill, insisted on going to the front and went with his command, being carried on a litter. He was still advancing when met and told the battle had been won.

SHAFER'S FIRST REPORT.

Scripta-McRae Service.
WASHINGTON, July 2.—The war department received the following from Gen. Shafter last night, dated at Siboney:
"Had a very heavy engagement today, which lasted from 8 a. m. until

MORE SPANISH PRIZES CAPTURED.

THE LATEST FROM CAMARA'S FLEET.

Scripta-McRae Service.
Madrid, July 2.—The efforts of the peace party are apparently having just the opposite effect on the war party from what is desired. The war party now seems to be in the ascendant and is stirring up the people with the cry of "No Surrender."

MORE SPANISH PRIZES.

Scripta-McRae Service.
Key West, July 2.—Two more prizes were brought in this morning. One was a British steamer the Benit Estenger, formerly a Spanish vessel and the other a Spanish smack. Both were captured while trying to run the blockade with supplies for General Blanco.

THE LATEST ABOUT CAMARA.

Scripta-McRae Service.
London, July 2.—A Port Said dispatch to Lloyd's says that the Spanish torpedo boat Prosperina, one of Admiral Camara's squadron, has gone to sea.

Scripta-McRae Service.
New York, July 2.—The hospital ship Relief sailed for Santiago this morning loaded with stores, provisions and trained nurses. This is the finest ship of the kind ever built and contains every appliance that can possibly be of use in attending to the wants of wounded soldiers and sailors.

MORE SPANISH DEVILTRY.

Scripta-McRae Service.
London, July 2.—Certain well known Spanish agents here say that a great surprise awaits the American troops upon entering Santiago, they say that the principal streets are being mined.

SATURDAY, JULY 2, 1898.

What is going to be done with our streets? They certainly ought to be repaired. The feeling one has in riding over them is similar to the one experienced in by-gone days while touring the country in a wagon over country roads. They are a disgrace to the city. There are streets that won't be affected by the sewerage that need repairing. In fact, the streets are in a worse condition than they ever have been.

The Populist National Committee has called a national convention to meet in Cincinnati to nominate a candidate for president and vice president. This is a severe blow to the fusion party. The Populists came so near losing their identity in the last election they will never be caught in the same trap again. If they had not permitted themselves to be trapped by the Democrats in 1896 they would amount to more today in the political world than they do.
When the separation comes which side of the fence is our enthusiastic rampant free-silver-or-hust congressman going to fall on. And there are others.

The Register this morning contained a flagrant perversion of truth it stated that a woman was found dead yesterday morning and the coroner was called, the obvious intention being to lead somebody to believe that the afternoon papers got scorched on the item. It was only the characteristic inability of that paper to furnish the truth, however, as was further evinced by the effort it made to make it appear sensational by intimating that the unfortunate woman committed suicide, when she had been extremely ill for several months. The only thing true in the whole account was that she was dead.
The people know where to get the news, and it is not in the Register.
Pipe dreams and silly sensations are not news. Neither are padded accounts of things that happened in neighboring counties days before.

The Owensboro Messenger says that Bryan will be a soldier henceforth and will distinguish himself "if he has an opportunity." It is a noticeable fact that the heroes of the war thus far have made the opportunity themselves, and that is what W.
J. Bryan must do. The idol of the 16 to 1 people began his military career by criticising the policy of the Commander-in-Chief of the American armies: he followed this with a vigorous kick because the wheels had not been out down from his regiment's parade ground, and now his followers whiningly say that if he is "only given the opportunity" he will become a hero. If Mr. Bryan or his followers are looking for a paved way to glory, they will get ingloriously left. If Col. Bryan has in himself the making of a Hobson, the people will put him among their other living heroes. If it is his destiny to fall as did Kinsign, Hagley or Hamilton, the Rough Rider, with his face to the foe, his memory will be immortalized. But he must earn his halo before he can wear it. No sentiment goes now. Only real heroes are honored; and while Col. Bryan is acquiring himself as a soldier should and is fighting his way to fame and honor, suppose his penny-annual workshops give the public a rest,— just for the novelty of the idea if not for good taste.

THE REVENUE LAW.

A perusal of the new revenue law discloses the fact that it would have been difficult to have formulated a tax law that would have distributed the burdens more equitably than the present law does. The intent of the law seems to be to levy the tax on those persons who can the most afford to pay it. The tax is almost without exception on the luxuries and upon those various business transactions, the very nature of which is such that one party or the other can afford cheerfully to pay the tax. The law is also made apparently especially for the interests of the poorer classes so that the tax will be "felt" as little as possible.

Considering every thing the tax is the heaviest on beer and similar fermented liquors. Yet the $2 per barrel of thirty-one gallons, if divided between the brewer, retailer and consumer becomes a very small tax.

The tax upon bankers, brokers, pawbrokers, theater and circus pro-motors, etc., is of such an amount, that while it will produce an immense revenue, at the same time must be paid by the concerns taxed and cannot be distributed among the people.

The tax upon cigars and tobacco is so small that it should not increase the cost to the consumer of the taxed articles. But the tax on cigarettes is proportionately high and has greatly increased their cost. As a matter of fact the cigarette from a hygienic standpoint ought to bear a prohibitious tax.

An important part of the law applies to checks, stock certificates, bills of exchange, etc., all of which are of such a nature that one of the parties to the transaction would willingly pay the tax, which is about 2c in each case. The payee of the check will generally gladly pay the 2c tax.
In life insurance only old line and prudent companies are taxed on their business, and such companies can afford to pay the tax. All fraternal and local co-operative orders are exempt, and any one who knows anything about the insurance business knows that an enormous amount of business thus escapes a tax.
Throughout the whole law the same spirit is manifest, the taxing of those whose business is such that they can afford to pay the tax or when the tax comes directly on the consumer, it is so small that it is not burdensome.

The inheritance tax is one feature of the law that should be permanent, though as a state instead of a nation!
tax; no person in the world can so well afford to pay a tax as the beneficiary of a will, or the legal heir.
Some states now have an inheritance tax and it is a good provision.

WHY WE FIGHT.

A Spaniard recently captured at Santiago said that our soldiers do not fight like other soldiers; that when fired on they kept advancing and the more the Spaniards fired the more the American soldiers advanced.

And such is the case. The American soldier has everything in the world to make him fight. He knows he will get paid. He knows that in case of his death his family will be well taken care of. If he is disabled he knows he will be cared for himself.

The other day congress, for the first time in American history, publicly thanked private soldiers by mentioning them by name. Thus the soldier knows that whether an officer or in the ranks he will get the honor his bravery and courage entitle him to.

He is well fed, and when wounded he has the best medical care that the vast resources of the nation can get.
The army and naval surgeons are the best in the country.

And over and above all the American soldier knows he is fighting for the best government the world has ever seen: that true freedom in its purest form is found in the United States; that he is an integral part of the great nation for which he is willing to sacrifice his life.

These are some of the reasons why the American soldier fights so bravely; why they "keep advancing."

NEW BONDS.

The Total Proposal For the New Issue of Bonds is Over $700,000,000.

Washington, July 2.—Inquiries at the treasury department elicit the information that the total proposals for the new government loan of $200,- 000,000 aggregate $700,000,000 up to the night of June 30. Of this amount there have been received and absolutely accepted subscriptions for amounts of $500 and less than $100, $40,000,000.

Subscriptions in amounts over $500, subject of future allotment, $250,000,000.

A proposal for a round lot at a premium of 1 per cent, $100,000,000.
Two syndicate propositions for any part or all of the bonds offered, $200,000,000 each, $400,000,000.
These syndicate offers and this offer for bonds at a premium are not in the regular form, although they came from entirely responsible sources, and no allotment will be made in either case. It is expected that heavy subscriptions will increase in number with the beginning of the month. Savings bank deposits will probably be realized to a considerable amount as the six-month interest period is July 1, and withdrawals now can be made by the depositors without sacrificing any interest.

To the waltz's yearning note.

The violins—ah! the violins—
In the balcony above,
In many a strain, breathe out again
The old, old story of love.

Perhaps 'tis the time, perhaps 'tis the scene—
Perhaps 'tis only a face:
But my memory's flown through the years long gone,
To a dance in an old-fashioned place.

I see the faces I used to love—Hear the names that I'll never forget:
And with spirits gay, I am threading my way Through the stately minuet.

I am old, and my race is nearly done—
I am making the finish alone;
But that dreamy time, like some days in June,
Recalls the days that are gone.

One of the most delightful open air fetes of the summer season was the German given Friday evening at Kamona park by Mrs. I. D. Wilcox, in honor of her guest, Miss Louise La-Rue, of Bowling Green. Ice and cake were served during the evening on the lawn to the guests. Those who enjoyed the hospitalities extended by the charming hostess on this enjoyable occasion were:
Messdames—Wilcox, Woods, Gregory, W. F. Bradshaw, Dave Flournoy, Ed Rivers, Irene Cox, Bertie Campbell.

Misses—Louise LaRue, Gertrude Asher, of Memphis; Mildred Terrell, the benefit of the Episcopal church.

ning of next week at her home on

FOR FEMININE EYES.

Among Europeans of what are called the upper classes much surprise is constantly expressed at the freedom with which American women travel unescorted through Europe.
A recently recalled American minister to a continental court was once asked by a court official: "That American wives no husbands at all, then? They come three, four, six at once to court. They ask to be presented to the king; they ask to be invited to state dinners; they must walk in mit a duke. There are not enough dukes to go round. Why do not their husbands come and walk in mit some dukes?"

At the Austrian court no Americans outside of the diplomatic circle are presented; very few at Berlin; while Queen Marguerita, of Italy, who has been more hospitable to our people than any other continental sovereign, has recently declined to receive any American women unac-panied by her husband. "Have they no homes in their own country, these poor ladies?" asked a French woman, "that they spend months or years in Europe wandering about alone? It was explained to her that American men often remained at home, earning the money necessary to send their wives and daughters abroad for the education which foreign travel gives.
"If that be so," she replied, "they will study art and language hard, so as to return quickly to those who work for them. They will not buy costly clothes, and not push their way into every court in Europe."

Another new position has been opened for women. On every floor in some of the large new hotels a woman is now required whose business it is to sit in her parlor and receive those among the guests of the hotel who as strangers need to be directed about their purchases: about the best milliners, dress and boot makers, hair dressers, manicures, etc. For this she receives a liberal allowance. All her living expenses are paid. She has every other evening to herself, and her meals are served in her room, so that all necessary publicity is spared her.

The new hotel, the department stores and the bicycle have really done a great deal for women after all.

Talk back upon the altruistic force in education a few days ago one of the party told an amusing story of the Boston doll. "Whether it is a true story or not I don't know," she said, "but I hope it is." We are supposed to go to Boston for anything in

Argument

It is not necessary to convince a thinking person that money is thrown away when invested in a typewriter that has not passed its experimental period.

Years of hard, thoughtful effort and continual experimenting are necessary before reaching approximate perfection in a writing machine—is it wisdom, then, for one to contribute to this cost of experiment?

Reputation Established

Years of experience, constantly increasing sales the world over—the natural result of typewriter excellence—is the unquestioned record of THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER.

When you buy a Smith Premier you obtain a writing machine that is in advance of all others in points of improvement and durability.
Do not pay for the costly experiments of others. The Smith Premier passed its experimental period years ago. It now stands the leader among writing machines. Descriptive catalogue free.

TO RECOVER TAXES.

City Attorney Lightfoot Will Institute Suit Against the Banks.

He Says They Owe $10,000 For 1895—Will Try to Collect It.

City Attorney R. T. Lightfoot announced that he will at once institute suit against the banks of Paducah to collect taxes due the city for the year 1895.

He has for several days been investigating the matter, and has ascertained, he says, that the banks paid no taxes whatever for that year, and that the city has lost for taxes on the banks for that year, about $10,000. He is now preparing to bring suit.

FOUND DEAD.

Inquest Held This Morning Over the Remains of Mollie Fuller.

Coroner Phelps held an inquest this morning over the remains of Mollie Fuller, a middle aged woman who lived at Tenth and Husbands street and had been ill for about six months of hemorrhages.

The woman lived in one of Mr. Chris Liebert's houses, and he was the one who found her yesterday afternoon. He stated under oath that he went there at 5 o'clock and found her dead. The lamp was still burning in the room, indicating that she was too ill to get up and extinguish it at daylight, leaving it to burn all day. There was a bottle of laudanum sitting on the table, but she had been taking it for some time to relieve her suffering.

Coroner Phelps was summoned, and found when he arrived at 5:30 o'clock that she had not been dead long, as the corpse was not stiff. The remains were conveyed to Ellinger's establishment, where the inquest was held this morning. The evidence showed that she died from natural causes, and the verdict was to that effect.

The deceased was 54 years old, and had lived here for about thirty-five years. Her husband formerly worked at Langstaff's mill, and she was a son buried at Mt. Carmel.

Mr. F. C. Rudolph was this morning appointed administrator of her estate, and at was appraised at $50. This will insure her a decent burial. The remains will be interred at Mt. Carmel this afternoon or tomorrow. If she has any relatives here, or anywhere else, no one knows them.

INTERESTING RELIC.

Bombshell Found Up the Tennessee River.

Mr. Ed Iverlett, who lives on a farm about ten miles up the Tennessee river, brought to the city today a fragment of bombshell which he dug up in his field a few days ago. He turned it over to Mr. Ed Jones, the well known grocer, who exhibited it to a great many people.

Mr. Iverlett says that the shell was whole when he found it, but he placed it under a tree and built a fire around it, going nearly a mile away. It exploded, and could be heard six miles. One of the pieces Mr. Jones now has.

Capt. Bill Rollins, it is understood, remembers when the shell was fired, and says it was shot from a boat, on which he was pilot. It is quite peculiar that it exploded after 33 years.

A Paducah boy joined the army at Washington day before yesterday. He went from Tennessee with the volunteers from that state.

He is Mr. Heck Corbett, who was traveling for the Wallace-Gregory Vinegar factory when he left the city two weeks ago for a trip south. His friends and family were not apprised of his intentions when he left here, and from statements made to his friends before he left, he did not intend to join the army.

He is a well known young man, son of Mrs. Mary E. Corbett, of 601 North Seventh street. He is now in camp at Camp Alger.

SCREEN + DOORS!

We still have a stock of those fancy screen doors, also seven-eighths and one-and-one-eighth-inch plain screen doors. The wire in these doors is not put on with tacks but securely fastened in grooves with a tongue or strip of wood. We are the only ones selling this class of screens in the city. Insist on having this kind; they are the best. Take no others so-called "just as good."

Ye Shall Know Them

Any gear, saddle, tire, handle bar or pedals.
